

Introduction

As the Governing Body recognised by the BJA as being responsible for the administration of Judo in Northern Ireland, we the Northern Ireland Judo Federation are responsible for overseeing the adoption and the implementation of our child/young person protection/safeguarding policy and code of ethics and good practice for children/young person's sport by our members.

Aims:

To ensure that all clubs and members are well informed about children/young person's safeguarding issues and that all members are familiar with the procedures for reporting concerns, their duty of care and responsibility to report and the various indicators of child/young person abuse and neglect.

To provide a model of appropriate and effective communication between members, clubs and other adults working with children/young persons

To monitor child/young person's welfare and physical, social, emotional and intellectual needs.

This policy complements and supports a range of other procedures within the Northern Ireland Judo Federation, including:

- BJA Safelandings Document
- Equality Policy
- Code of Conduct and Ethics for Coaches
- Conduct and Complaints
- Memorandum & Articles of Association

These policies may be accessed from the Northern Ireland Judo website: www.nijudo.com

Roles and Responsibilities

Lead Designated Liaison Person

The designated person within a sports organisation with primary responsibility for managing and reporting concerns about child/young person and for putting into place procedures to safeguard child/young person in the organisation, including supporting the club, county and regional welfare officers, where relevant.

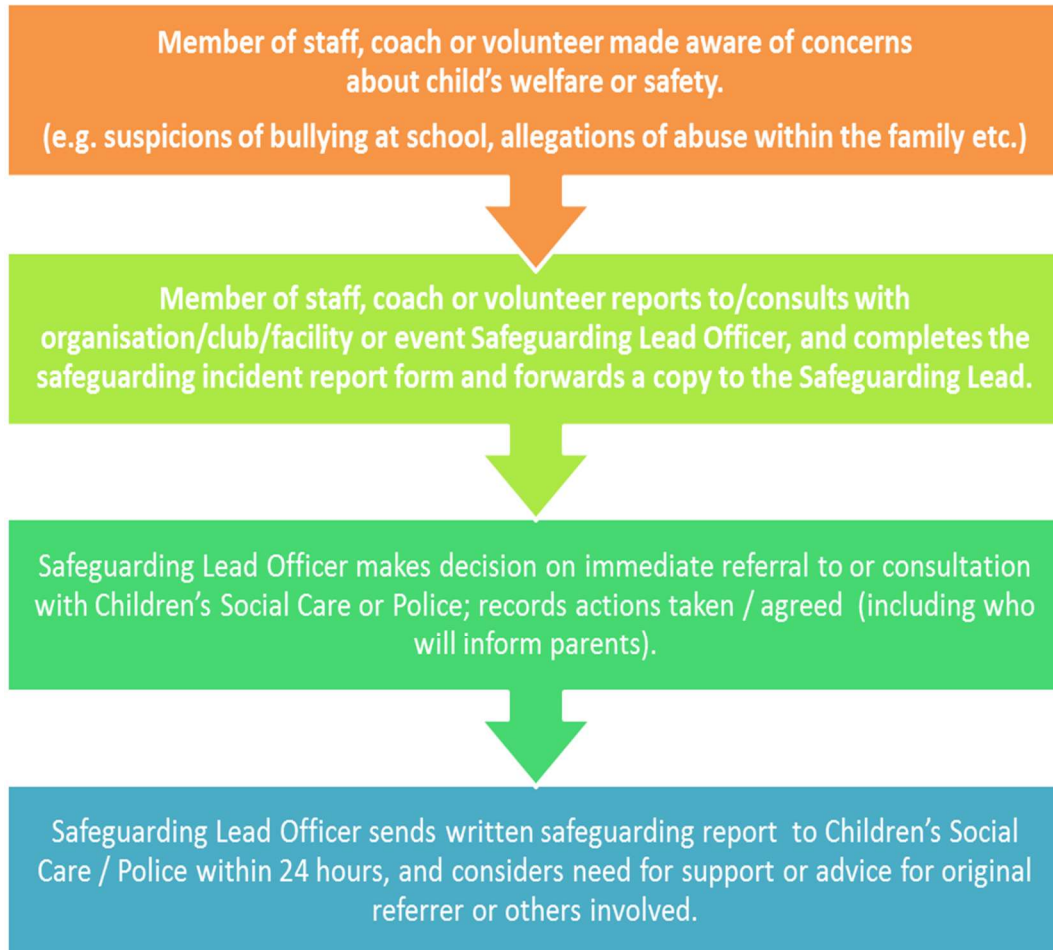

Club Designated Liaison Person

The person within a sports club with primary responsibility for managing and reporting concerns about child/young person and for putting into place procedures to safeguard the child/young person in the club.

Reporting

Any allegation by a child/young person that he/she has suffered abuse will be treated seriously. It is not the responsibility of anyone working within a club setting or organisation to decide whether or not child/young person abuse has taken place. There is a responsibility to act on any concerns you may have by reporting them to the appropriate officer or authorities.

Steps to follow:

Information Sharing

When information has been received concerning a child/young person, data needs to be shared appropriately, it is essential to maintain confidentiality and that only those who need the information are made aware of it.

Vetting

All members, staff and volunteers who are working closely with child/young person within the Northern Ireland Judo Federation should all be vetted.

Within clubs, this is the responsibility of the club committee to make sure all relevant documents are in place.

Training

All volunteers and staff should be trained in safeguarding children and young people; training is essential and helps to understand what is expected. There are different levels of activity and this will depend on the role within the club. Once training has been achieved. This will need to be renewed every three years.
