NOTES

The Tournament Organiser reserves the right to refuse permission to video/photograph at this event.

Please note that regardless of the equipment used children should not be filmed/photographed outside of contest situations without the express permission of their parent/legal guardian or person acting in loco parentis

This form does not need to be sent to NIJF Head Office; however, event organisers should keep these forms, as they will be requested by the NIJF in the event of a complaint/query.

Requests to see identification documentation are at the discretion of the Event Organiser. It is recommended that organisers' request sight of press ID cards for press applicants. For the purpose of these forms a child constitutes a player under the age of 18.

Please ensure the appropriate NIJF wristband is worn and visible during the event.
